About Christina Baldwin

Author Christina Baldwin is a pioneer in the field of personal writing, a decades-long teacher of journal and story. Her titles related to this work are: One to One, Life's Companion, The Seven Whispers, and Storycatcher.

For 25 years she taught the skills of circle practice across North America and around the world. Her titles related to this work are: Calling the Circle and The Circle Way.

She continues to contribute in her bodies of work through online presence and personal appearances, blogging, and an upcoming novel. She lives on an island north of Seattle, Washington with author and naturalist educator, Ann Linnea.